

SMALL GROUP HEALING SESSION FOR WOMEN WITH SEKHMET

If you are aware of some sense of deep loss in who you really are as a woman; if you feel some deep pain, blocks or restriction, or something in you that has never been fully expressed in your feminine energies, this small healing session may be for you.

You may be conscious of some loss in your spiritual feminine energies. This loss could go back a long way- perhaps past lives or through your ancestors.

This is not a psychotherapy session. Sekhmet will heal broadly for around an hour and you may then wish to share or just rest. Sekhmet may do some short work for you individually in this time.

Sunday October 13
